Leadership and Law is a summer internship for High School students entering their Sophomore, Junior or Senior year in the fall of 2026.

- Develop Leadership Skills
- Participate in mock trial proceeding on current legal issues

Judges, Attorneys, Government Leaders and Law Enforcement Professionals will provide a hands-on experience.

Leadership and Law will be offered the week of June 8, 2026 at the Dearborn County Courthouse. The program will meet at 8:30 am to 4:30 pm Monday through Friday and will require participation for the entire week to receive a Leadership in Law Certificate.

The program is offered at NO cost to students and all materials and lunches will be provided.

This program may be limited to the number of participants. Interested students should complete the application form and write a short essay on: "Why you would like to participate in the Leadership in Law Program". Return it as soon as possible to the Guidance Office but no later than April 3rd. "I love the mock trial, it was by far the best experience of my life"

"I like how it showed me different aspects and categories in the law field."

"Can you offer Leadership and Law Part 2? I would love to do this again!"
