Leadership and Law

SUMMER INTERNSHIP
JUNE 8 – JUNE 12, 2026

Leadership and Law is a summer internship for High School students entering their Sophomore, Junior or Senior year in the fall of 2026.

This one-week intensive program will provide a valuable opportunity for students to observe, interact and utilize leadership skills while participating in a program providing insight into careers in law, law enforcement, forensic science, and government.

Students will experience:

- Real court in action
- First hand experience with CSI crime scene technology
- Develop Leadership Skills
- Participate in mock trial proceeding on current legal issues

Judges, Attorneys, Government Leaders and Law Enforcement Professionals will provide a hands-on experience.

Leadership and Law will be offered the week of June 8, 2026 at the Dearborn County Courthouse. The program will meet at 8:30 am to 4:30 pm Monday through Friday and will require participation for the entire week to receive a Leadership in Law Certificate.

The program is offered at NO cost to students and all materials and lunches will be provided.

This program may be limited to the number of participants. Interested students should complete the application form and write a short essay on: "Why you would like to participate in the Leadership in Law Program". Return it as soon as possible to the Guidance Office but no later than April 3rd. Students will be notified of acceptance and further details by April 17th.

Past participants have raved about their experiences:

"It was an amazing experience! I would recommend this to everybody!"

"I love the mock trial, it was by far the best experience of my life"

"I like how it showed me different aspects and categories in the law field."

"Very cool to see how a crime scene works."

"Can you offer Leadership and Law Part 2? I would love to do this again!"

Students will have an exciting opportunity to explore future careers, college choices and provide input to future leadership in law internships while having fun. If you are thinking of a career as a law enforcement officer, paralegal, crime scene investigator, or attorney, this will be a great experience.
